

PETITIONER/PLAINTIFF:	CASE NUMBER:
RESPONDENT/DEFENDANT:

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR

You may object to the court issuing the Notice of Support Arrearage on any of the following grounds:

- (1) There is an error in the amount of the arrearage stated in the application.
- (2) You are not the judgment debtor from whom the support is due.
- (3) The amount to be intercepted exceeds that allowable under federal law.
- (4) A default in payment of the support for 30 days has not occurred.
- (5) Other necessary factual allegations contained in the affidavit are erroneous.

If you have not objected, the State Controller can deduct the unpaid support from any tax refunds or lottery winnings you would otherwise receive. The money withheld will be paid to the court and you will receive notice of an opportunity to file a claim of exemption in court before the money is paid to the judgment creditor.
